THE STANTON GROUP APPOINTS TIMOTHY DORWART AS NEW VICE PRESIDENT OF SALES AND MARKETING FOR CERWIN-VEGA & KRK

Chatsworth, CA – June 6, 2005 – The Stanton Group, announced today that they have appointed Timothy Dorwart as the new Vice-President of Sales and Marketing for Cerwin-Vega and KRK. Mr. Dorwart will report to Dave Froker, CEO of The Stanton Group. A seasoned veteran, with 25 years experience, Dorwart has tenured with the Bose Corporation and DMX. Mr. Dorwart has extensive experience in establishing direct and indirect business to business sales, marketing, product development, project management, organizational development, engineering, executive business management/planning, business acquisition, business modeling and business re-organization. In addition, Dorwart has managed the profit and loss results for major national/multi-national corporations as well as multi-million dollar capital, expense and revenue results.

“Cerwin-Vega and KRK are two of the most respected brands in their industries, says Dorwart. “I am delighted to be a part of this relentless pursuit of providing the best audio tools for pro, home, and mobile audio consumers.”

Dave Froker, CEO of the Stanton Group, states, “Timothy’s comprehensive knowledge and experience within the audio industry combined with his vast experience managing sales and marketing teams will be an invaluable part of Cerwin-Vega and KRK’s success. He is a welcome addition to the team.”

In the 1980’s, Timothy Dorwart joined the Professional Products group at the Bose Corporation where he held positions in sales and sales management, selling professional audio speakers and electronics for live performance and fixed engineered audio systems. During his tenure with the Bose Corporation, he held other prestigious positions such as: National Field Sales Manager, responsible for the U.S. distribution of Bose products; and Director of Professional Products, North America.

Mr. Dorwart was also responsible for building the sales, marketing, and distribution of Bose products throughout the 1990’s; pioneering innovative selling strategies and selling channels driving double-digit growth in revenues and profitability for the company; heading Bose’s residential installation business, where he led the turn around to profitability of this important area of Bose’s home audio division; and managing the marketing and product development for Bose Pro.

In mid 2000 Mr. Dorwart joined DMX, one of the nation’s leading systems integration and music programming companies, as the lead development and growth manager of the DMX’s systems integration business.
